English Language, Speech & Drama

The mission of our programme is to encourage students to see themselves as creative writers and eloquent speakers who can express their ideas fluently and confidently in both oratorical and written forms.

Our course modules contain wide-ranging and structured pre-writing, writing and reflection activities to provide students with an expanded scope of thinking. Students will be trained to map out their ideas, develop their storylines, and edit their syntax. Students will also be inspired to brainstorm creative ideas for various genres, such as fictional and situational writing.

Our course also uses special methodology which incorporates engaging activities and skits to improve participants' body language, voice, emotions, and speech crafting so participants will be inculcated to master the essentials of public speaking.

20 years of experience of providing Math Olympiad training with excellent track records

RECMEL is founded by Dr Chua Seng Kiat, a renowned mathematician who has served stints at Brown University and the National University of Singapore. Dr Chua has trained the Singapore National Teams for the International Mathematical Olympiad since 1994. RECMEL has produced many winners in past Math Olympiad competitions.

The objectives of this Mathematical programme are four-fold:

- To develop higher-order problem solving skills
- To stimulate creative and critical thinking in Mathematics
- To provide deeper insight on challenging Mathematics
- To prepare for Mathematical competitions

Students who obtain 80 marks (mainstream) and above in the school assessments are encouraged to sign up for the programme. GEP students are welcome too.

Ukulele is developed in the 1880s, and it's of Portuguese origin and popularized in Hawaii. It is a beginner-friendly musical instrument as Ukulele has 4 strings, so it serves as a stepping-stone to progress to Guitar or other string instruments. Learning Ukulele is a great way to enhance the learner's focus and improves good posture. The time it takes to learn the chords, scales, strumming patterns, and songs sharpen the brain and help sustain attention.

Participants of this course will be taught and prepared to take certification examinations offered by institutions like the Rockscool (Debut to Grade 3) and Singapore Raffles Music College. These certifications are internationally recognised qualifications.

In addition to being certified for their hard works, students will also be immersed in an array of music genres, styles and instrument-specific techniques.

RAFFLES

Ballet Class

Course Code: 09

"Ballet is a graceful disciplined art, but it is also Expression, Education, Encouragement and Enjoyment" - CSTD

The basis of this dance programme is Classical Ballet – a structured dance form which provides the basic foundation for many other kinds of dance. Using the CSTD Syllabi, the programme will improve posture, develop poise and coordination, and increase the attention span and musical awareness of students. Our instructors have excellent track records of competition and examination results, and they will ensure that children learn not only how to dance, but how to love dancing.

Modern Jazz is our new CSTD Syllabi programme, and it combines rhythm, expression and techniques perfectly blended with popular and street music. The smooth and syncopated moves of Jazz allow dancers to use their body as an instrument to portray the various styles. Benefits of Jazz include increased strength, flexibility and endurance.

CSTD (The Commonwealth Society of Teachers of Dancing) is an authoritative examining body. It is one of the main Ballet, Jazz, etc syllabi in Singapore currently. There are 6 Grades of Children Ballet and certificates will be issued upon passing the annual grading examinations.
